2009 TASTE FOR DOUGLASVILLE ARTS Vendors, Restaurants & Sponsors Wanted!

Douglasville, Georgia – In partnership with the Downtown Development Authority, the Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County presents the 2009 TASTE FOR DOUGLASVILLE ARTS, now in its thirteenth year and better and bigger than ever before --- and an event no one should not miss! Arts and crafts vendors and artists groups, area restaurants, and local businesses can contact the Cultural Arts Council (770-949-2787) now to request vendor, restaurant and sponsorship packets and register to participate in Douglasville's most popular annual downtown event.

Janice Thompson and Linda Worthan, our community's two first ladies, will serve as our Honorary Co-Chairs for the event again this year; and CAC Board Member Allison Williams of Managed Care Billing Services, has agreed to be our Event Chair. WSB 750-AM Radio will also be our media sponsor again in 2009 with Captain Herb Emory, and the Douglas County Sentinel will publish and distribute more than 5,000 copies of our event catalogue. There will be high quality outdoor arts and crafts booths, lots of children's activities, and two festival stages – a variety of talented local performers on O'Neal Plaza and a student showcase on our second stage on Courthouse Square East. The 2009 Taste for Douglasville Arts will include more vendors, more restaurants, more participants, and more family fun as well as more promotion of this community cultural showcase in historic downtown Douglasville, and a special new wine-tasting kickoff event featuring North Georgia vineyards at the Chamber of Commerce downtown on Friday, May 15th, 6 until 8 p.m. with catering from Sam & Rosco's. Another special addition this year is our Saturday evening, Concert on the Plaza, 7 until 9 p.m., featuring an outstanding Cajun band so the community celebration can continue into the evening, immediately following after our main festival event.

Last year more than 8,000 people enjoyed TASTE FOR DOUGLASVILLE ARTS, and their participation helped the Cultural Arts Council support arts education programs reaching more than 10,000 local students, affordable spring break and summer arts camps in county and city parks, free spring and fall concerts on O'Neal Plaza, critically acclaimed monthly gallery exhibits at the historic Roberts-Mozley House, and many more special events like the annual Georgia Cowboy Poets Gathering, Mad Hatter's Tea Party, Ice Cream Social, and the Dia de Los Reyes festival offered throughout the year.
