

OUR TEACHING ARTISTS

Dancer and choreographer Joi Jamison has been teaching dance since 1998, working with Norfolk State University's Dance Theater and the Effingham Street YMCA in Virginia. She has performed as Norfolk's Nighthawks Dance Girl for the semi-pro football team. She was a dance instructor for the Young Peoples Guild for Performing Arts School in Portsmouth and served as Dance Director for the Virginia Thunder Dance Team, Kelli's Dance Explosion and the Virginia Crusaders. Jamison has conducted many dance and cheer workshops for children and adults.

Marcella Kuykendall graduated with a degree in fine arts from the University of West Georgia where she concentrated on ceramics and sculpture. She has worked with S.C.R.A.P. (Source for Recycled Artistic Products) Bin, teaching a children's marionette workshop focusing on creative reuse of discarded materials, and taught several clay workshops for the Cultural Arts Council's Empty Bowls initiative this fall in Douglas County. Her first ceramics classes are being offered at CAC in January 2011.

Visual and performing artist, Terumi Todd brings her Japanese heritage, along with American and other cultures in her art. She teaches arts and crafts, specializing in the fiber arts including art quilts and fashion design. Her works have been displayed at the Rockmart Art Center, U*Space, Mable House, Southwest Arts Center, Arts Clayton and Neo Renaissance Art House in Atlanta.

Visual Art, Dance, & Ceramics
Summer Arts Camp at Hunter Park
Monday, July 11th - Friday, July 15th
9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Children will explore the wonderful world of dance, ceramics & visual arts, while working with three expert and experienced teaching artists.

Campers (a total of 30 can be registered) are divided into three groups of ten by age.

Fees for the week are $100 for the first child ($75 for CAC members) with a $5 discount for siblings. Early drop off (8 am) and late pick up (5 p.m.) can be arranged for an additional fee of $25 with the Parks and Recreation staff.

Daily schedule will include three creative sessions in the arts, morning and afternoon breaks, and a lunch period. Campers should bring two snacks and lunch. On the final afternoon the campers become performers and present an original performance and presentation during our Celebration of Achievements, Friday, July 15th, 2 until 3 pm. Families and the community are invited to attend.

Space is limited, so reservations must be made by calling CAC, 770-949-2787!
