2010 SUMMER EXHIBITION AT CAC -- The Flower Show

Douglasville, Georgia – The Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County presents The Flower Show, an invitational exhibit of works by artists who explore floral imagery and will display flowers from mediums all across the board at the Cultural Arts Center in downtown Douglasville. The pieces on display represent the diverse achievements of many local artists' investigations of flowers and their aesthetic value through a wide range of artistic perspectives. The exhibition opens June 3rd and will be on view through August 13th.

The mission of the Cultural Arts Council of Douglasville/Douglas County is to nurture, guide and stimulate the enjoyment of and participation in the arts among Douglas County residents by providing an atmosphere conducive to the arts, broadening the spectrum of quality exhibits and performances available to the community, and fostering individual interactions with the arts through a wide range of satellite organizations. The Cultural Arts Council and its exhibitions at the Cultural Arts Center are supported by its members, sponsors, the City of Douglasville, the Douglas County Board of Commissioners, and Georgia Council for the Arts through appropriations from the State General Assembly. The GCA is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts, which believes a great nation deserves great art.

The Cultural Arts Center of Douglasville/Douglas County is located at 8652 Campbellton Street in historic downtown Douglasville, Georgia, about 20 miles from Atlanta and just off I-20 west (exit 36).
